Diana was born in Moncton, NB; she met her husband Dave in Richmond, BC; her two daughters were born in London, Ontario. The family moved to Faro in 1987 and then re-located to Ft. Saskatchewan, AB in 1992. In the spring of 2007 Diana and Dave returned to Faro to enjoy semi-retirement.

Diana began a banking career with the Royal Bank in Ontario as a filing clerk. She steadily worked her way through various positions to become a Personal Banker just prior to her move to Faro in 1987. She was hired as a teller by the CIBC branch in Faro and attained the position of Officer in Charge prior to moving to Alberta. Diana decided to shift careers and began earning her Level 3, Early Childhood Educator designation by attending evening courses while working full-time.

Upon her return to Faro Diana was hired as the Librarian for the Faro Community Library. She accepted a part-time position with the local TD Canada Trust branch in October 2007, becoming the Agent for TD in August 2008. Until October 2015 Diana also provided support as an Early Childhood Therapy Assistant in the local Kindergarten class.
